An Irish Mystery

Book Club Guide

The Irish Crown Jewels: Stolen in 1907, lost for centuries... until now.

Cedric Newman, a renowned entrepreneur, is on the verge of acquiring the legendary jewels when a cunning betrayal shatters his plans. His trusted associate, Hans Fischer, is framed and imprisoned, and the jewels vanish once more.

Years later, Hans emerges from prison with a thirst for revenge, and Cedric's past comes back to haunt him as they race to uncover the truth behind the betrayal and reclaim the stolen treasure.

From the glittering halls of Dublin Castle to the shadowy corners of the criminal underworld, they must navigate a treacherous maze of deception, danger, and intrigue. With their combined skills and Cedric's vast resources, they will stop at nothing to find the jewels and clear Hans's name. But as they delve deeper into the mystery, they uncover a conspiracy that reaches far beyond the stolen jewels, a conspiracy that threatens to shatter their world and expose the dark secrets of their past.
